MEMO ENDORSEMENT

Re: United States v. Jonathan Acosta
22 Cr 628 (LTS)

Dear Chief Judge Swain,

I write to request the Court temporarily modify Mr. Acosta's bail conditions to allow him to travel to his girlfriend's mother's home on Thanksgiving Day, November 23, 2023. His girlfriend's mother lives approximately ten minutes away from Mr. Acosta in Manhattan. Because Mr. Acosta is on home detention, Pretrial Services opposes this modification as a matter of policy. However, his Pretrial Services Officer ("PTSO") notes that Mr. Acosta has been in compliance with his conditions of release.

If the Court grants the application, Mr. Acosta will provide his PTSO with the address and agreed-upon time frame for the visit. The Government defers to Pretrial. Thank you for the Court's consideration of this request.

The foregoing request for modification to Mr. Acosta's conditions of release pending sentencing is granted. Mr. Acosta shall provide Pretrial Services with the address and agreed-upon time frame for the visit at least 24 hours in advance of his travel.

SO ORDERED.
